Chris Pine stars in "People Like Us" on Showtime.

NASCAR RACING: A big weekend at North Carolina's Charlotte Motor Speedway gets going with today's Nationwide Series race, the History 300. A field including Sam Hornish Jr., Regan Smith, Brian Scott, Justin Allgaier and Elliott Sadler will go at it on the 1.5-mile quad oval in a race won last year by eventual Sprint Cup champion Brad Keselowski. 1:45 p.m. on KMIZ

MOVIE: PEOPLE LIKE US: Often seen in action-driven fare ("Star Trek"), Chris Pine does a nice job in this much more personal 2012 comedy-drama about a salesman who gets lots of surprises when his father dies. Not the least of them is the sister (Elizabeth Banks) he never knew he had. Pine and Banks offer fine, deeply emotion-based teamwork in a cast that also includes Michelle Pfeiffer and Olivia Wilde. 7:30 p.m. on Show

BODY OF PROOF: Tim DeKay guest stars in this episode as the father of a girl whose death Megan and Tommy (Dana Delany, Mark Valley) are investigating. It looks like an extreme case of child abuse, but he and his wife (Margaret Easley) claim their daughter was possessed, and the devil killed her. The mother begs Megan to keep her surviving child from suffering the same fate in "Lost Souls." 9 p.m. on KMIZ

LONGMIRE: In anticipation of the Season 2 premiere next week, the channel is rerunning Season 1 of this modern Western. In the season finale, "Unfinished Business," the brother of a developmentally disabled Cheyenne girl looks like the obvious suspect when two teens acquitted of raping her are murdered. Walt (Robert Taylor) suspects there's more to the story, however. 10:01 p.m. on A&E
